

Annual International Academy of Moscow Contemporary Music Ensemble in Tchaikovsky city (www.academy.iscmrussia.ru) invites young composers (under 30 y. o.).

15 young composers (12 students, 3 auditors), selected by the professional jury according to the applications, will have a possibility to work during two weeks on a new composition under the patronage of well known composers.

Each student will have individual lessons, lectures and rehearsals with the musicians of the Moscow Ensemble (under the professors' patronage), as well as presentation of his/her own works.

The compositions will be premiered by Moscow Contemporary Music Ensemble in the frames of the Academy in the Tchaikovsky city and at international festivals in Perm and in Moscow.

The second Academy will take place September 1 -> 12, 2012
(NB dates are yet to be specified) in Tchaikovsky city (Perm region) and in Perm.

Deadline for the applications = April 15, 2012.

Professors:

Mark Andre, composer (France)

Johannes Schoellhorn, composer (Germany)

Musicians:

Soloists of the Moscow Contemporary Music Ensemble

For more information:

<http://academy.iscmrussia.ru/academy-applicat.html>

Contact: moscowensemble.academy@gmail.com